INTERESTING ITEMS FROM EL VERANO AND SONOMA.

Miss Myrtle Minkel visited in San Francisco Saturday.

P. D. Wheatland was in the Bay City Saturday on business.

P. W. Hawkinson of the new Schellville colony was in town one day last week.

A large crowd from here will attend the Sells Floto circus in Santa Rosa on May 9th.

Charley Miller of Charley Miller's Villa returned from San Francisco Saturday.

Miss Myrtle Brown, a charming girl of San Francisco, is registered at the Bellevue Hotel.

Forrest B. F. Cottle, of the Spreckels ranch, spent the latter part of the week in San Jose.

District Attorney Clarence Lea passed through here from the county seat Saturday en route to Oakland.

Geo. Stickel, a popular young man of this place, has accepted the position as bar tender at the Bellevue Hotel.

O. C. Benjamin, proprietor of the Bellevue Hotel, transacted business in San Francisco one day last week.

Chas. Danieli and Joe Garoni were fishing at Embarcadero last Saturday and got a nice mess of cat fish.

Dan Singleton, a well-known business man of the metropolis, was the guest of his old friend, O. C. Benjamin, Sunday.

Supervisor J. Harry Weise of Glen Ellen was here the latter part of last week making his monthly inspection of the county roads.

Jim McBride was in San Francisco last week attending the funeral of his sister who passed away in that city a few days previously.

Jos. and Michael Kiser, who own a large ranch on the Petaluma side of Sonoma mountain, were here Saturday renewing old acquaintanceships.

Walter Armstrong spent the latter part of last week at the Swiss-American Hotel here. He is a well-known business man of the metropolis.

Thos. McNamara and family came down from Santa Rosa on Friday morning's S. P. train en route to Sonoma. Mr. McNamara is County Surveyor of this county.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Gale and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Gale autowed through Napa county Sunday in the latter's new Ford car. They covered over 100 miles and found the roads good.

Henry J. Norrbom, wife and children made a trip to Napa last Sunday in his new Hupmobile. St. Helena, Calistoga and other towns were visited. They returned home by way of Healdsburg and Santa Rosa.

Howard Knight, the good-looking Deputy County Assessor of Schellville, was in town last Friday and made quite a bit in his natty gray suit, and the ladies here all admired the slick-looking political man and say it is too bad he is married. Mr. Knight has finished assessing property in these parts and the writer will miss him.

Mike Mannuck of San Francisco visited his folks here Sunday.

Archie McKiver, reporter of the Index-Tribune, is still very much alive.

Sam Stahl of Cantor's Villa and Jack Robinson of Spindler's ranch have been pensioned for faithful services rendered.

Jos. Dowdall, after spending several weeks at Dillon's Beach, has returned home and pronounces things flourishing over that way.

Miss Ramona Granice came up on Sunday morning's S. P. train from Oakland, en route to Sonoma where she was the guest of relatives.

There is some class to Art Hickman, the new Index-Tribune's reporter at Boyes Springs. His items are interesting and were read with interest here.

Rev. Father Cassin of Santa Rosa came down on Sunday afternoon's S. P. train en route to Sonoma, where he assisted Archbishop Hannah in confirming the children at St. Francis church.

The score on the Boyes Springs diamond last Sunday was 8 to 0 in favor of the Boyes Springs team as against the Whittlock Cordage Co. Batteries, Ball and Reiterman and Buelin and Jackson.

Subscribe for the Sonoma Index-Tribune and get the latest reliable local news. See Archie McKiver at once and have an up-to-date local newspaper introduced into your home which will not corrupt your family.

John Basilou, the barber, was sporting a new dinky straw hat Sunday in Sonoma. The attention of everybody was attracted to it and our chin-scraper was asked on all sides where he bought it. It's a peach.

Cows and other live stock are still running loose along the railroad right-of-way and the train crews are complaining daily to the poundmaster but apparently without avail. Something ought to be done toward enforcing the county pound ordinance here.

Miss Alice Armstrong, a charming young lady of the Exposition City, is visiting here again this season. She simply couldn't stay away, because she says El Verano is such a beautiful place. The young lady will remain here a week.

Among those who were interested spectators at the ball game on the Boyes Springs diamond Sunday were Capt. Leo Baines, who hiked it up from El Verano, took a bleacher seat and looked wise. Tom Mullen was also there with a new Panama hat fresh from Broadway, New York, and as the wind was blowing he seemed to be more intent in keeping his sky-piece on his head than watching the game. T. H. Baines and Louis Peterson were also in the crowd and liked the game. Paul Vanucci came up from Verano with an auto load of lady friends and took up his time in explaining to them the different points of the game and his famous laugh was also in evidence. Jimmy, the foul ball chaser, was kept busy chasing balls and ought to have a flying machine to grab them on the fly. Many others were there and enjoyed the sport.

Miss Alice Kearney of Oakland visited here Sunday.

Leon Mouyer of Berkeley was the guest of his father Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharon of Vallejo were guests at the Lewis ranch Sunday.

Chas. Spindler came in from Los Angeles on Saturday evening's S. P. train.

Miss Gale of Kenwood was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Gale Sunday.

Louis Kearney spent Sunday at Santa Rosa. Louie took in the ball game and pronounced it a hummer.

Mrs. John Lounibos and Miss G. Lounibos attended the wedding last Saturday at Glen Ellen of Reginald B. Meller and Miss Henrietta Chauvet.

A large crowd was here from the metropolis Sunday for a day's outing. The fair sex were well represented. The country boys of this place and Sonoma with their prancing steeds and rubber-tired rigs were also very much in evidence, and to the writer the summer girls broke the news that our boys are alright.

A large number of people from different sections of the county assembled at St. Francis' Church in Sonoma last Sunday to witness the confirmation of a large class of children by Bishop Hanna. The interior of the church was handsomely decorated and presented a beautiful sight. The Archbishop's sermon was a masterly effort and the singing by the choir was a feature.

Charley Davis, a well-known horseman of Sonoma, has been released from Joe Ryan's string of trainers and has signed over to Cator's Villa, where he will handle the reins as bus-driver for that resort during the summer season. Charley made his first appearance on the bus seat last Monday, and with a new cap and a cigar between his teeth almost set the town afire.

While J. Steckmeyer, Sr., was hiving a swarm of bees for Mrs. L. Carriger, one day last week, he had an exciting experience. The bees as a general thing are familiar to Jake but this particular swarm didn't take a liking to him, and just as soon as he got busy the bees also got busy, and attacked him. To escape being stung to death Jake took to his heels with the entire swarm in pursuit, stinging him in a dreadful manner, even the queen bee taking a nip at him. He finally reached his home and sought protection therein. In telling the writer of the incident, Mr. Steckmeyer says he told the owner of the bees for whom he was attempting to hive them to get some one else, that charity commences at home, and that he would let the bees do their own hiving in the future. Jake is still nursing the stings.

In Saturday evening's issue of the San Francisco Bulletin the address on "The New Patriotism," read lately before the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club by Miss Margaret More, a teacher in the Sonoma Valley High School, was read by our citizens with considerable interest and delight, particularly that portion of it dealing with the gift of a library building to the City of Sonoma by that conscienceless old hypocrite, Andrew Carnegie. We raise our hats in admiration to this brainy, patriotic American lady and pray that her kind may always be on the increase. Her words ring true. God bless her. For it is a well-known and indisputable fact that Carnegie made his pile by robbing the workers of his steel mills, the poor toilers of the horny hands and the melting hearts, and by always grinding relentlessly the faces of God's poor. The American cities that have accepted those libraries from the cunny laird of Skibo Castle should blush for shame. Are they not able to build their own libraries? This offer for the purpose of "glorifying" our republican institutions should be thrown back in Carnegie's face. Oh, spare us the humiliation of ever beholding "Old Glory" floating over this rotten structure erected, in the Plaza at Sonoma City with money wrung from the poor miners of Allegheny county, Pennsylvania, in these United States of America. Thank God! the spirit of '76 is still alive among us and there is still to be found millions like Miss More, who are not afraid of the boycott of would-be "managing editors," or the frowns of petty village tyrants.

Art Hickman of Boyes Springs transacted business in the Bay City Saturday.

T. Z. Blakeman, a capitalist of San Francisco, visited his ranch on the western foothills last Saturday.

Louis Parente was up from San Francisco the fore part of the week and registered at Charley Miller's Villa at Verano.

Mrs. L. L. Lewis and Miss Sharon, after spending a week on the former's ranch, returned to Berkeley Monday morning.

Chas. Butcher of San Francisco, who has spent the past several weeks at the El Verano Villa, returned home last Sunday.

Dal Emparan of the Crane Co. of San Francisco autowed through here Sunday. There was some speed to the be zine wagon.

Among the guests who were at the N. Dowdall residence Sunday were Miss Cecilia Dowdall, Leslie McKinnon and George Barry.

J. Walton, who has been section boss at Schellville the past several years for the S. P. Co., has been assigned to the Glen Ellen section and with his family has moved to that place.

About four hundred children inmates of the feeble minded home at Eldridge will be taken to Petaluma on May 5th to see the Sells Floto Circus. They will travel by special car and go to the chicken city over the N. W. P. via Ignacio.

On next Sunday a large crowd of baseball lovers of the Sonoma Valley will assemble at the Boyes Springs ball diamond to witness the much-talked-about game between the Glen Ellens and Boyes Springs and it promises to be lively and closely contested.

M. Topete of Sonoma passed through town last Sunday driving a spirited animal that spreads his legs like a race horse. Mr. Topete is an officer for the prevention of cruelty to animals and was here looking for offenders. Mike is a live officer and will grab anybody breaking the laws in this respect. He must have read the issue of last week's Index-Tribune.

FIVE-PASSENGER CAR TURNS TURTLE

The Four Occupants Miraculously Escape With Their Lives
But the Auto is Badly Damaged.

Last Sunday while D. Volquardsen, wife, son and daughter were on their way to Napa in a new Hupmobile car the occupants had a thrilling escape from death. When approaching Carneros creek near the Sonoma-Napa county line the machine was forced down a steep bank by another machine coming from an opposite direction and turning over brought up with a crash at the bottom of the incline.

The occupants were fortunately thrown clear of the overturned car which prevented them from being maimed or crushed to death. The little girl, however, was picked up unconscious but was soon revived while the other occupants escaped with minor cuts and bruises.

The car was badly damaged, one of the forward wheels being reduced to kindling wood by the splintering of the spokes. The car, which was a brand new one, was towed into town Monday morning and taken to the Mission Garage for repairs.

Mrs. H. H. Granice's Ashes Transferred to Mountain Cemetery

The ashes of Mrs. H. H. Granice, which have reposed in Cypress Lawn Cemetery, San Mateo County, for nearly nine years, were transferred to Mountain Cemetery in this city last Sunday. They now repose in the family burial plot beside the remains of her mother, Mrs. R. J. Keogh, who passed away last September.

The members of the family present at the interment were H. H. Granice, Miss Ramona Granice, Celeste Granice Murphy, Walter Murphy, Mrs. Agnes Turner and Ed. Keogh.

Last Sunday, while George Mezuze, a Jap chauffeur in the employ of J. K. Bigelow, was driving a brand new Kissel car belonging to the Misses Kenyon in which were seated Mr. and Mrs. Bigelow's two children, he lost control of the car opposite the Marzocco place on Riverside avenue, and plunged into a ditch alongside the road. The driver maintained his seat but the kiddies were hurled from the car but fortunately escaped injury. The car then settled on its side, the ditch preventing it from turning completely over. The machine was but very slightly injured.

An Unjust Resolution and The Board of Supervisors.

At the February meeting of the Board of Supervisors its members were deceived into passing an unjust, cruel and unfair resolution restricting the number of liquor licenses in this valley between El-dridge and Schellville to eleven. Those who urged upon the Supervisors the passage of the obnoxious resolution went before that body and claiming to represent the Sonoma Chamber of Commerce, when there is in reality no such civic organization in this city, and under this false pretense made the Supervisors believe that they not only represented a powerful and influential civic body here but public opinion as well. As a matter of fact, the so-called representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, some three or four in number, represented nothing except their own selfish purposes and personal spite against a number of reputable resort keepers in this valley, whom they desired to rule or ruin. These, by the passage of the obnoxious and unfair resolution, although complying with the initiative ordinance adopted by the voters of Sonoma County last November, in so far as the thirty-five room provision is concerned, had complied with the law, and had a right to expect liquor licenses to be issued to them. The objectionable resolution has deprived these of their rights, while it recognizes the rights of other resort keepers with the necessary 35 rooms in their hostleries.

This sort of law-making is so obviously wrong and one-sided that a strong petition has been sent to the Supervisors by the citizens of Sonoma Valley asking the Board to rescind a resolution which they were prevailed upon to pass by fraudulent methods and a misrepresentation of facts.

This matter will come up before the Supervisors for a hearing on Thursday, May 8th, and we are quite sure that the Board when the true facts are presented to its members will have no hesitancy in rescinding a resolution that is injurious to the business interests of both town and valley and accomplishes nothing in the way of reform.

The Japanese Question, the Governor And His Freak Legislature.

That the freak Legislature now in session in Sacramento is completely under the domination of Governor Johnson and the powerful and conscienceless political machine built up by him since he was inducted into office as the chief executive of the state a little over two years ago, is obvious to any one of ordinary intelligence who reads the daily and weekly papers. Nor is this domination confined to those self-styled "Progressive" legislators, who can always be depended upon to "come through" and bow down in subjugation to his whims and caprices. He has even the Democratic members "buffaloed" in his efforts to pass freak laws and build up a powerful political machine which if he is not curbed will in time rule the people with a rod of iron, who may realize when it is too late that it is a case of "too much Johnson."

No better evidence is wanting of Governor Johnson's complete domination over the members of our state legislature than that of its members obeying his behests the past week in the matter of the Japanese question with which they have been wrestling, as against the wishes of President of the United States, Woodrow Wilson, conveyed to the Governor and his legislature through his representative, William Jennings Bryan, Secretary of State.

Governor Johnson, in his egotism, would brook no interference with his plans on this Japanese question even from the President of the United States, with his freaky legislature to back him up in his game of politics, as he is in no wise governed by patriotic motives in the stand he is taking in this matter of national importance.

Archibald McKiver, Correspondent, Is Still Very Much Alive.

J. K. Bigelow's organ, the Expositor, rises to remark in its issue of last Wednesday, in referring to the death of one Archibald McKiver, who passed away in this valley one day last week:

"This death will be the means of clearing up a great mystery which has overhung El Verano for a number of years. It has always been an open question in El Verano whether the person who signed his name as Archibald McKiver as a correspondent to the Index-Tribune, was Mullen of Mullen's store or some one else. We will wait to see in the next issue of the Index-Tribune if such a man still exists."

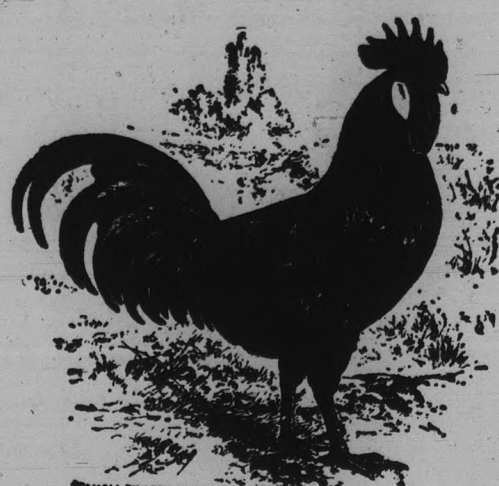

He sure do. Archibald McKiver, our correspondent, is very much alive as his namesake (peace to his ashes) is very much dead. We might here remark that there are many Smiths, Browns, Jones' and McKivers on this mundane sphere of ours but only one G. J. K. Bigelow. The latter is in a class by himself.
